And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: (Music starts) and Jesus saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I pray. And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy; And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

Then, at the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? In that bitterest hour, the Father had withdrawn the support of His immediate Presence, leaving to the Savior of men the glory of complete victory over the forces of sin and death.

Then Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, exclaimed in a loud voice: It is finished! Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit. Then He bowed His head, and voluntarily gave up His life
